Francisco Antunes

PROFILE

Deep ruby-coloured wine with considerable aromatic complexity, dominated by notes of red fruits and subtle toasted nuances derived from ageing in 300-litre French and Russian (Caucasian) oak barrels for one year. On the palate, it is fresh and intense, displaying great character and persistence. One of Aliança's flagship wines from the Douro region.

TASTING NOTES

Deep ruby colour. Aromas of ripe red fruits are complemented by subtle notes of well-toasted oak. On the palate, hints of fruit preserve reveal the grapes' perfect ripeness. The very ripe tannins, beautifully integrated with the wine's acidity, give this wine remarkable character, structure and depth.

NUTRITIONAL DECLARATION:

HISTORY

Quatro Ventos Superior is produced from grapes grown at Quinta dos Quatro Ventos. Covering a total area of approximately 150 hectares, this century-old estate is located in the Douro Superior sub-region, on the border of the parishes of Seixas and Numão, within the municipality of Vila Nova de Foz Côa.

A total of 45 hectares are planted with vineyards on terraces and vertical rows, benefiting from different sun exposures. Priority is given to the most traditional grape varieties of the Douro Superior, namely Touriga Franca, Touriga Nacional and Tinta Roriz.
